Relevant Fire Safety Definitions

For the purposes of the reporting and disclosure described herein, the University defines the relevant terms as follows.

- “Fire” : Any instance of open flame or other burning in a place not intended to contain the burning or in an uncontrolled manner.
- “Cause of Fire” : The factor or factors that give rise to a fire, including intentional action, unintentional, mechanical failure, or an act of nature.
- “Fire-related injury” : Any instance in which a person is injured as a result of fire. These included injuries sustained from natural or accidental causes.

At times, the University also houses students in the following apartment buildings (AH):

- 251 Lexington Avenue, Manhattan (Apartment Housing – AH)

This dwelling consists of multiple apartment units used, in part, for student housing for the Beren Campus. This building is managed by a third party management company which also leases apartments to other private tenants. The management company is responsible for providing Fire Safety Plan and Evacuation procedures to residents and ensuring that the building adheres to all New York City Building Department and Fire Department regulations. Hallways in the building have sprinklers, and each apartment has battery operated smoke/carbon monoxide detectors.

- 30 Park Avenue, Manhattan (Apartment Housing – AH)

This dwelling is owned and managed by a third party and consists of multiple apartment units,

EMERGENCY EVACUATION:

Housing Procedures for Evacuation in Case of a Fire

- Keep calm. Do not panic. Notify the Fire Department as soon as possible. Fire Department personnel will be on the scene of a fire within minutes of receiving an alarm.
- If your building is equipped with a fire alarm and that alarm is sounded, you should evacuate the building in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Fire Safety Notice affixed to the back of the room/suite entry door. WHEN A FIRE ALARM SOUNDS, ALWAYS EVACUATE THE BUILDING.
- Because of flame, heat, and smoke rise, general building (i.e., fire exits, stairways, alarm pull stations), as well as the fire safety procedures for the building.

Residents should report any problems or inappropriate behavior observed to the Beren Campus Security Department, including damaged or tampered with fire alarms, removal of fire exits signs, missing fire extinguishers, and behavior that compromises the safety of the community.

List of the titles of each person or organization to which students and employees should report that a fire occurred.

At the onset of a fire, students and employees should immediately report all fires to the New York City Fire Department by dialing 911 or activating the fire systems. The Security Department should be notified as well by calling 917-326-4885.

Any plans for improvements in fire safety, should the University determine that improvements are necessary
Not at this time.

Each University campus will distribute its Annual Fire Safety Report and Annual Security Report to all current students and employees by October 1 of each year. The reports will be posted on the University's website on the Security Department's page at <http://www.yu.edu/safety-security/> and can be accessed by clicking on the Reports link. A notice will be distributed to all students and employees briefly describing the reports.

Annual Report to the U.S. Department of Education

As required by federal law, the University reports annually to the Education Department the fire statistics listed herein for Beren one campus student housing as well as fire statistics for on-campus student housing for its other campuses. The University reports these statistics through the Education Department's web-based data collection system.

Statistics for the University and other schools are available at the Office of Post Secondary Education's web page at <http://ope.ed.gov/campusafety/#/>.

Daily Fire Log

As required by federal law, each University campus maintains an easily understood written Daily Fire Log. The main office of the Beren Campus Security Department, located at 50 East 34th Street (1st Floor), maintains the Fire Log for the Beren Campus.

The Daily Fire Log lists the following information for each fire that occurs in on-campus student housing: The date the fire occurred, time of occurrence, general location and nature of fire.

The Chief of Security ensures that entries are made in the Fire Log within two business days after the Security Department receives a report of a fire and updates these entries within two business days anytime it receives additional information about the fire. The entries in the Daily Fire Log are eventually used to generate the Annual Fire Safety Report. The Daily Fire Log is kept separate from the Crime Log. The most recent 60 days of each campus' Daily Fire Log are available upon request in the campus Security Department's main office for inspection by the public on Monday through Friday during business hours. Portions of the Daily Fire Log that are older than 60 days will be made available within two business days of a request for public inspection. The University maintains each Daily Fire Log for three years following the publication of the last Annual Fire Safety Report to which that Daily Fire Log applies. Thus, the University maintains each Daily Fire Log for a period of at least seven years.

Annual Security Report

The Annual Security Report is prepared in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. It is available from the Security Department of each campus. It may be viewed during business hours. The Daily Crime Log is also available for inspection at each campus' Security Department.
