

. Once we violate halakha on the basis of a cognitive doubt, we have in effect ceased to function as believers and begun to act as deniers- not even as doubters.”
“Faith and Doubt”, Rabbi Dr. Norman Lamm

Do you agree with Rabbi Dr. Lamm’s distinction between doubt in cognitive and functional faith?

Could this explain the difference between _____’s protest and the protests of the other _____?
?

Do you believe there is a place for doubt in the faith of a religious Jew?

“Faith does not mean certainty. It mean